She ultimately found her home and passion in the field of social work, obtaining a Masters and practicing as a therapist for 25 years. Helen initially became involved in JFCS as a volunteer, delivering Kosher Meals on Wheels. She combined her passion and expertise as an active and effective member of the Professional Services Committee, both before and after joining the JFCS Board in 2003. Helen is a respected and unstoppable force, whose mind and heart is focused on the mission of JFCS and the critical difference the agency makes in our community.

To the Leadership of JFCSNJ, you have taken on some difficult challenges throughout the years, and you always rise to the occasion, approaching each situation with dignity and grace.
