HONORING

Susan Greenbaum

Chief Executive Officer of JFCS

Tracy Zur

Bergen County
Commissioner

Celebrate Susan Greenbaum

When Susan became JFCS's CEO in 2014, she ushered in a decade of continued growth and success for the agency. Susan's expansive experience in the non-profit industry has made her an invaluable asset to JFCS, and it is noticed by all who interact with her. Ask any JFCS employee or Board member and they will tell you that Susan has been the bedrock on which the agency has thrived, offering an open ear, a willingness to try new things, and an overall attitude that fosters an environment of success. Leading JFCS through a merger, a global pandemic, and an attack on Israel that affected everyone in our community, Susan is always the steady hand that guides the agency to resilience and excellence. Though Susan is retiring after this fiscal year, her impact on JFCS and Northern NJ will be felt for generations to come.

Celebrate Tracy Zur

Tracy Silna Zur has been a Bergen County Commissioner for the past twelve years and has dedicated her career to being a champion for the underserved. As a former prosecutor and judge, Tracy has witnessed first-hand the injustices that plague some members of our community. A desire to initiate change drove her to run for public office so she could address the root causes of the challenges that many families face. Notably, she spearheaded the Bergen County Food Security Task Force (now the Office of Food Security) in response to the impact of the economic crisis caused by the pandemic. Tracy has been an avid supporter of JFCS's Corner Market Food Pantry, connecting JFCS to vital resources that enable the agency to better serve its clients. Similar to JFCS, Tracy is an advocate for employment, housing, social programs for adults with special needs, and mental health services. Tracy's dedication to improving the lives of those in our community is a gold standard of public service that has allowed the residents of Bergen County to thrive.

Dear Susan Greenbaum,

On behalf of the State of New Jersey, I am pleased to join the Jewish Family & Children Services of Northern New Jersey (JFCS) and extend my sincere congratulations to you upon your reception of today's honor at this year's annual celebration event. It is indeed noteworthy that your impressive expertise, diligence, and leadership skills as Chief Executive Officer of this crucial organization have made you a worthy recipient of today's special recognition.

Susan, I commend you for working tirelessly to ensure steadfast devotion and commitment to your community. Under your remarkable leadership the JFCS has provided compassionate and emergency assistance in addition to mental health services and food assistance regardless of the financial situations of all who call upon them. The many dedicated acts of service and resources provided by JFCS have ensured the well-being of its members and the greater Jewish community. As Governor, I commend you and the entire JFCS for your unwavering commitment to upholding the Jewish traditions and values in the Great State of New Jersey and serving as a beacon of hope for many individuals and families. Your mission and values are what make the Garden State the best place to live, work, and raise a family.

Congratulations, again, on today's honor and best wishes for a successful and enjoyable event.

My very best,

Dear Tracy Zur,

On behalf of the State of New Jersey, I am pleased to join the Jewish Family & Children Services of Northern New Jersey (JFCS) and extend my sincere congratulations to you upon your reception of today's honor at this year's annual celebration event. It is indeed noteworthy that your impressive devotion to justice has been appreciated and crucial to this organization, which has made you worthy of your recognition today.

Tracy, I commend you for working tirelessly to ensure devotion to justice through serving as a prosecutor, judge and now Bergen County Commissioner that has reflected your commitment to serving your community well. I applaud your leadership towards compassionate assistance with employment, affordable housing, healthcare access, and programming those with special needs. Other initiatives that she has spearheaded were especially important during Covid-19 where you made it your mission to prioritize those in need of food assistance by taking control of Bergen County's Food Security Task Force, which is now a county office. The many dedicated acts of service have ensured the well-being and dignity of its members and the greater Jewish community.

Congratulations, again, as you celebrate such a remarkable milestone and for being such a hallmark of public service. Best wishes for a successful and enjoyable event.

Dear Friends,

It is our distinct honor to extend our congratulations to the Jewish Family and Children's Services of Northern New Jersey (JFCSNNJ) as you celebrate your annual gala. This year, we are especially proud to join you in honoring two exemplary leaders, Susan Greenbaum and Commissioner Tracy Zur, whose dedication to service and commitment to our communities is truly remarkable.

Through the tireless efforts of the JFCSNNJ, countless lives have been touched with compassion, support, and a sense of belonging. Susan Greenbaum's leadership and Tracy Zur's advocacy continue to elevate the mission of JFCSNNJ, creating positive change and strengthening the social fabric of Northern New Jersey. Their steadfast dedication to empowering families and fostering inclusivity serves as a beacon of hope for all of us.

We are inspired by the daily work of JFCSNNJ, and your efforts exemplify the power of community-driven action. It reminds us of the importance of solidarity in addressing the challenges faced by families today.

On behalf of our entire team, we extend our warmest congratulations to JFCSNNJ and this year's honorees. May this celebration serve as a reminder of the profound impact that compassionate service and community commitment can have on the lives of so many.

Dear Friends,

We extend our deepest congratulations to Jewish Family and Children's Services of Northern New Jersey (JFCS) during your Annual Celebration. This event not only highlights the essential mental health and social services JFCS provides as a beacon of hope for countless families across North Jersey and District 38, but also serves as a joyful recognition of the amazing individuals you uplift through your life-changing work every day.

This year, we join JFCS in applauding two distinguished honorees: JFCS CEO Susan Greenbaum, and Bergen County Commissioner Tracy Zur. Both of these remarkable women embody the very spirit of service, leadership, and empathy that binds and strengthens our community members, including those most in need.

The 38th Legislative District is an extraordinary place to call home, in no small part due to the presence of dedicated, compassionate organizations like JFCS. We are truly grateful for your work in ensuring a strong safety net for all, and we thank Susan Greenbaum and Commissioner Zur for their invaluable contributions to our community. Together, these efforts help build a brighter future for everyone, guaranteeing that no individual—no matter how vulnerable—is left behind.

We look forward to continuing to support and partner with you in serving our region, and wish you many more years of happiness and success. Please know that we are always here to be of assistance in any way we can.

Dear Honorees:

On behalf of New Jersey's 39th Legislative District, we would like to extend our best wishes and congratulations to those being honored at the 2024 Jewish Family and Children's Services Annual Celebration. We are honored to recognize two individuals, JFCS Chief Executive Officer Susan Greenbaum and Bergen County Commissioner Tracy Zur, who have contributed their time and talent to this organization.

Jewish Family and Children's Services of Northern New Jersey plays a pivotal role in strengthening and enhancing the well-being of all who need professional and compassionate mental health services to help with challenges placed before us. The 2024 honorees have contributed tirelessly to JFCS's 4 pillars of service by providing services for seniors, food assistance, emergency funding and comprehensive mental health counseling.

We honor and celebrate the remarkable contributions each of you have made to the Jewish community. Your hard work and dedication to JFCS is to be commended. Once again, please accept our sincerest congratulations to the honorees and everyone who is supportive of Jewish Family and Children's Services of Northern New Jersey. The combined effort enhances our communities every day, and for that, we are grateful.

Dear Ms Greenbaum and Ms Zur,

As the Deputy Majority Leader of the New Jersey Senate, I would like to sincerely congratulate both of you for being honored and recognized for your contributions to the Jewish Family and Children's Services of Northern New Jersey and to the residents of Bergen County.

In my many years in the New Jersey legislature, I have seen firsthand the great work that the JFCS has done for our residents. JFCS provides much needed professional human services such as senior assistance, mental health services, food insecurity assistance, and help with other basic needs. It is these principles of compassion and community service that both of you exemplify in your day-to-day work.

Once again, I congratulate both of you on being honored and recognized at the Jewish Family and Children's Services of Northern New Jersey's Annual Celebration.

Re: Jewish Family and Children's Services of North New Jersey Annual Celebration on November 17, 2024

On behalf of myself and the Governing Body of the Borough of Franklin Lakes, please accept this letter of commendation to the recipients of this year's awards for Community Service from the Jewish Family and Children's Services of Northern New Jersey (JFCS), to be given out at the celebration scheduled for November 17th. This year's awardees, your Chief Executive Officer Susan Greenbaum and Franklin Lakes' own Tracy Zur, Bergen County Commissioner, represent the kinds of citizens who exemplify this award. The JFCS, deriving its mission from Jewish tradition and values, has aided Northern New Jersey for years in a variety of services in an effort to enhance and strengthen the well-being of the community. These include older adult services, mental health services, food insecurity services, and basic needs assistance. This year's awardees epitomize these services on behalf of the Bergen County community. We are particularly honored that Ms. Zur is one of this year's recipients.

Our congratulations to all associated with this great organization.

Sincerely yours,

 True Women of Valor
SUSAN GREENBAUM and TRACY ZUR

How excellent that you are being honored together, because you have identical passions for so many things, and you are on the front lines for all of them! You make sure that all members of the communities you serve have food to eat, and the Food Pantries always are stocked with healthy items, that both nourish the body and the mind, by relieving the stress of food insecurity. You go above and beyond to assist those who need a roof over their heads, and employment to remain where they live. You care about all people that come to you, regardless of Race, Religion, Faith or Ethnic Group, and approach those in need with dignity and grace. You have made your work with our treasured Holocaust Survivors rapidly fading from our midst, a high priority which touches us deeply. Your generosity of spirit is so impressive! You live and breathe Social Justice, something our Jewish People are well known for.

The Torah emphasizes the importance of giving generously to the needy, even when it may seem inconvenient or financially risky, as a means to receive divine blessing. In Deuteronomy, Moses instructs the Israelites on the obligation to support the needy without hesitation. There is never a moment's hesitation for the two of you in the myriad ways you help people live better lives, and for this you are a Blessing for so many, and for that may you receive Blessings in kind abundantly.

Susan, it has been wonderful getting to know you over the years, especially as a "Cousin under the skin", which is how I feel about fellow children of Holocaust Survivors. Your devotion to Jewish Family and Children's Services of Northern New Jersey never falters nor fails, to the great benefit of the people, well beyond quantification. May you go from strength to strength in all you do!

Tracy, we have known your beautiful Family for decades, and you embody all of their very positive traits of Gimilut Chasadim and Tzedakah, and the residents of Bergen County are the beneficiaries of those high moral values! May you go from strength to strength in all you do!

To the highly educated and sensitive professionals and staff of Jewish Family and Children's Services, we honor you too for a job always well done! Kol HaKavod ve Yasher Koach!

Susan,

Mazal tov on this important and well-earned milestone in your career.

I want to wish you joy and meaning as you begin the next stage of your life. You have dedicated decades to the Jewish community, and I am eternally grateful to you. You have had an incredible career helping others live their best life and now it's your turn to focus on what is most important to you.

As a leader, you have been visionary, compassionate, and driven by a true sense of purpose. As a person, you are warm, selfless, and deeply committed to uplifting those around you. As a partner, you have always valued teamwork and the strength of community. Throughout your tenure at Jewish Family and Children's Services, you have transformed countless lives and worked tirelessly to support individuals and families in need. Your dedication to bettering our world and building strong, lasting connections has left an indelible mark. I personally thank you for your years of remarkable service and impact and of course, your friendship.
