JEWISH FAMILY & CHILDREN'S SERVICES
OF NORTHERN NEW JERSEY

HONORING

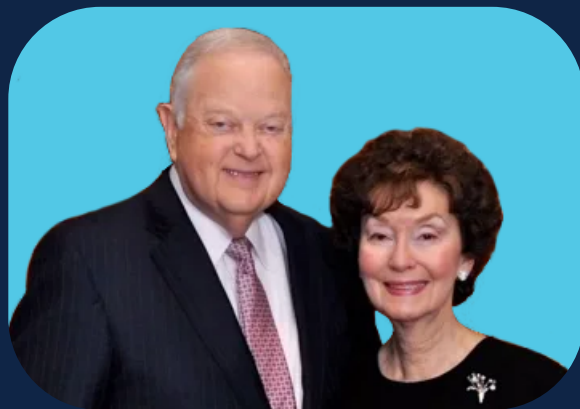

The Goodman Family

Celebration
OF JEWISH FAMILY &
CHILDREN'S SERVICES
OF NORTHERN NEW JERSEY
Sunday, November 13, 2022

Celebrate

Lawrence z"l and Rosalyn Goodman

Lawrence z"l and Rosalyn Goodman are role models in the community, dedicating their lives to imparting a legacy of philanthropy. Through their generosity and volunteerism, they instilled the importance of giving back in their children, David, Caryn, and Mindy, and to their nine grandchildren. Larry was a leader and board member of multiple Jewish community organizations.

During their children's formative years, Roz delivered Kosher Meals on Wheels and often brought them with her. Later, she served on JFCS's legacy Board of Directors (JFS of Northern NJ). The Goodmans committed over 50 years to the agency - a dedication imparted to their children.

Celebrate

David and Hope Goodman

David, a CPA, has been actively involved with JFCS for 25 years, having served in many different capacities. On the Board of Trustees, he was Treasurer, Vice President and President. As if that weren't enough, David chaired both the Finance and Senior Services committees and co-chaired the Executive Director Review Committee. He also served on the Executive Director Search committee. David has been active in numerous other organizations, including Jewish Federation of Northern New Jersey, Jewish Federations of North America, Bergen County High School of Jewish Studies, Metropolitan Schechter High School of Bergen County, Tulane University Center for Public Service, and the Kidney & Urology Foundation of America. With JFCS, David continues a family tradition – his parents were long-time Board members – and David met his wife, Hope, an OB/GYN and a long-time volunteer at Solomon Schechter Day School of Bergen County, through her parents' JFCS connection. David and Hope live in Paramus and are the proud parents of Miri, Rivke, Laili and Sari.

Celebrate

Caryn Goodman and Mitchell Caplan

Caryn, a geriatric care consultant, got involved in JFCS about 15 years ago, after she and her husband, Mitchell, moved to Ridgewood. She has served on the Board and now serves on the Professional Services Committee. In the spring of 2020, after her father passed away, she experienced JFCS's support first hand when the organization started a support group for people who lost parents during the COVID-19 pandemic. At a time when mourners were unable to meet in person, Caryn found the support group incredibly helpful in enduring the enormity of her loss by having a community to engage with. In addition to JFCS, Caryn served on the Board of Jewish Community Housing Corp (Federation Apartments) and now serves as a member of the Jewish Federation of Northern New Jersey's Real Estate Task Force. Caryn and Mitchell are the proud parents of Cole and Joshua.

Celebrate

Mindy and Jason Sickle

Mindy, an information-technology management consultant on drug safety projects, has been involved with the Jewish community for most of her life. In high school she belonged to USY and studied at BCHSJS, and while attending Cornell she served on the Hillel student board and co-chaired the UJA campus fundraiser. Now living in Manhattan, Mindy is a member of the Board of Trustees of Congregation Habonim. She is also president of its Sisterhood, a member of their Youth and Family Programming Committee, and a past chair of the annual synagogue gala. Mindy and Jason are the proud parents of Preston, Jordyn and Spencer.

We are honored to join you in commending the Goodman Family. Jewish Family and Children's Services of Northern NJ, and the greater Bergen County area are lucky to have such compassionate and dedicated leaders.

The Goodman family provides invaluable contributions to our community. In addition to committing 50 years to JFCS, two generations of the JFCS Board of Directors consist of the Goodman Family. To say that Lawrence and Rosalyn Goodman created a legacy is an understatement, and we thank them for their generosity.

Lawrence Goodman was more than the neighborhood accountant; he changed people's lives everyday through friendly advice and guidance. Rosalyn delivered meals with children in tow for Kosher Meals on Wheels. As individuals, they are devout public servants. Together, Lawrence and Rosalyn, soulmates since age 15, were the definition of a power couple.

Thank you for including us in this celebration. We wish Jewish Family and Children's Services of Northern NJ and the Goodman Family continued success.

Respectfully,

Dear Friends,

We would like to extend our congratulations to both the Jewish Family and Children's Services of Northern New Jersey (JFCSNNJ) on their 2022 celebration and to the honorees, the Goodman Family.

The JFCS of Northern New Jersey is a vital pillar of our community, providing a wide range of services for those in need including senior services, food assistance and mental health counseling to name but a few. Individuals of all backgrounds have a place to turn to in times of need thanks to the generosity of JFCSNNJ. We would like to express our deepest appreciation for the service they provide to the State of New Jersey.

Furthermore, we would like to take a moment to highlight the philanthropic legacy of the Goodman Family, including Laurence and Rosalyn Goodman, Hope and David Goodman, Caryn Goodman and Mitchell Caplan, and Mindy and Jason Sickle. Their leadership and contributions to the community have not only strengthened said community but also serve as inspiration to others interested in giving back.

Again, we extend our deepest gratitude to the Jewish Family and Children's Services of Northern New Jersey and send our sincerest congratulations to the Goodman Family. Without you all, our community would be a much more vulnerable place.

Sincerely,

Dear Friends,

It is my pleasure to compose this Special Letter of Congressional Recognition as you celebrate your many achievements tonight. The Jewish Family & Children's Services of Northern New Jersey (JFCSNNJ) is a safe place that often finds people during their darkest hour. Thank you for being a positive force for good here in the State of New Jersey.

The Jewish Family & Children's Services of Northern New Jersey is a true friend of the Ninth Congressional District. The services you provide empowers people to discover new opportunities and find self-sufficiency. The COVID-19 pandemic was once of the greatest challenges we have ever faced as a nation. Jewish Family & Children's Services of Northern New Jersey was there every day to provide support. Whether people were struggling with food insecurity, unemployment or just needed a receptive person to talk too, JFCSNNJ was there. As you all celebrate tonight, reflect on all the people you helped over the years. They will remember the impact you made as they strived to find a better quality of life. I would also like to recognize the Goodman, Caplan and Sickle families as they are honored for their tireless service and dedication to the community. Thank you for your hard work and humanitarianism.

Again, I would like to congratulate Jewish Family & Children's Services of Northern New Jersey. I root for your continued growth and support of the Jewish community. I know the best is yet to come. As your friend in Congress, please do not hesitate to contact me if you should need any assistance.

Sincerely,

From the Bindelglass Family
You are an inspiration to all!

מזל טוב!

Larry Goodman (of Blessed memory)

Perhaps your name doesn't fully describe you, because you were a Great Man! There really are no words to adequately express what an extraordinary man Larry was in our eyes, and what high regard our entire family still hold him in! He was such a mensch of the finest quality, always with so much warmth and a friendly welcoming way, without exception. Larry's Passion for the Federation Apartments in Paterson, a City so many of us originated from, was clear and without waver, like everything he held dear. Larry's passing was an enormous shock to our Community, and even though we will always miss him, his incredible Family has carried on and " In tribute to his memory they continue perform acts of charity and goodness. And the deeds they perform and the prayers they offer help to keep his soul bound up in the bond of life as an enduring source of blessing. Amen."

Roz Goodman

You are surely an Eshet Chayil אשת חיל of the best, most devoted and elegant variety! We love your Style, Grace and Commitment to, not only your own beautiful Family, but to your Community as well, always ready to open your lovely home for a valuable Program that will expand understanding for those in attendance. From the moment one meets you, they can easily see how genuine and filled with love you are! Roz you deserve every honor that is bestowed upon you!

David Goodman

We consider ourselves fortunate to have experienced what an outstanding leader you have been of both JFNNJ and JFCSNNJ as well, always behaving Presidential while in the position, and demonstrating compassion for so many segments of our Jewish Community both locally and globally, all along the way! How proud we are as members of the Berrie Fellows Leadership Program, to see how you and a few other Berrie leaders, created the JFNNJ Klene up Krew, to gather groups of involved people who have been ready to fly to your beloved New Orleans to physically give aid to those suffering in the aftermath of the devastating Hurricane Katrina which has gone on for many years, even now, always with a spirit of Teamwork with local leaders! Today your groups have given help in Texas, and right here in New Jersey as well, to step up after disasters have stricken, sometimes without warning. I believe your life changing efforts by way of the Klene up Krew trips, which number in the twenties, we've really lost count, but we can say כל הכבוד for doing all of this through some challenging times of your own!

Dr. Caryn R. Goodman

You are one of the most Intelligent, well Educated and Generous women I know! I light up whenever I see your face! Your Wisdom and Experience in the area of Geriatrics were a tremendous source of consolation to me as my beloved Mother (of Blessed memory) was struggling with Alzheimer's Disease. Your Warmth and Calming influence are special aspects of your character that elicits a sense of solace in others who are living through some new and trying situations with their loved ones. It has been an honor to serve on the JFCSNNJ Board with you, you are an exceptional Human Being who is always completely present when in conversation! Your Positive Qualities cannot be fully enumerated, suffice it to say, we think you are Wonderful!

Mindy Sickle

We do not know you as well as your Siblings, but we do know you are involved with your Jewish Community, and even in your professional life, you strive to help others through your work every day! On the occasions that we have spoken, it was quite clear that you are definitely your Parents' Daughter in all of the most impressive of ways! May you continue to go from strength to strength in all you do!

To the Spouses and Grandchildren, you are all shining examples of Kindness and Respect for others, and your role in the Magnificent Dynasty of Dedicated members that is the Goodman Family, is truly remarkable! May you all continue to work Shoulder to Shoulder with one another and Members of your Community, and may you live long lives, ad 120, Amen וראמן!
